

Ma'am -

Words do not adequately express how sorry I am for the conversations I have had through the Kik platform.

I do not know any personal information; I will no longer be on the platform or ~~for~~ continue any communication with your daughter. As a parent I can understand your anger & concern, but again, I assure you no more activity with her or ~~at~~ any others will take place.

I plan on seeking counselling to fully explore things that have been ~~secret~~ secretly kept to myself.

Again, I am terribly sorry. I can assure you this will not happen again.
